

THE CHRONICLE.

Clarksville, Tenn., March 6, 1881.

NEBLETT & TITUS,
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

One Dollar per square of Ten Lines or less.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

NO. SQUARE.	1st 2d 3d 4th 5th 6th 7th 8th 9th 10th
1 Square.	2 50 4 50 6 00 8 00 10 00 12 00 14 00 16 00 18 00
2 Squares.	4 00 6 00 8 00 10 00 12 00 14 00 16 00 18 00 20 00 22 00
3 Squares.	6 00 8 00 10 00 12 00 14 00 16 00 18 00 20 00 22 00 24 00
4 Squares.	8 00 10 00 12 00 14 00 16 00 18 00 20 00 22 00 24 00 26 00
5 Squares.	10 00 12 00 14 00 16 00 18 00 20 00 22 00 24 00 26 00 28 00
6 Squares.	12 00 14 00 16 00 18 00 20 00 22 00 24 00 26 00 28 00 30 00
7 Squares.	14 00 16 00 18 00 20 00 22 00 24 00 26 00 28 00 30 00 32 00
8 Squares.	16 00 18 00 20 00 22 00 24 00 26 00 28 00 30 00 32 00 34 00
9 Squares.	18 00 20 00 22 00 24 00 26 00 28 00 30 00 32 00 34 00 36 00
10 Squares.	20 00 22 00 24 00 26 00 28 00 30 00 32 00 34 00 36 00 38 00

Advertisements of marriages and deaths free—tributes of respect and obituary list price.

Louisville & Nashville Railroad.

Trains leave Clarksville as follows:

NORTH:
No. 2, Fast Express, daily, 4:45 p. m.
No. 4, Fast Mail, except Sunday, 12:30 a. m.
No. 6, Accommodation, daily, 12:30 a. m.
No. 8, Freight, daily, 2:30 p. m.

SOUTH:
No. 1, Fast Mail, except Sunday, 7:25 p. m.
No. 3, Fast Express, daily, 2:30 p. m.
No. 5, Accommodation, daily, 2:30 a. m.
No. 7, Freight, daily, 10:55 a. m.

The finest brands of imported claret, as Chateau Lafite, Ponsot, Canon, Chateau La Rose, St. Julien, St. Estephe, at G. A. Roth's.

Persons.

Col. Clifton Dancy, of Jackson, Tenn., was registered at the Franklin House this week.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Norman McCreary has lost his foot badly cut with an axe several days ago.

Mr. Joe Blanton, representing a large Cincinnati clothing house, was in the city this week.

Mr. W. E. Settle, a prominent lawyer of Bowling Green, Ky., was in the city, on legal business, this week.

Miss Lillian Beaumont returned home last Saturday from a most enjoyable sojourn with friends in Columbia and Nashville.

We are pleased to see that Mr. R. W. Thomas, of New Providence, is up and about again. He has been confined a long time at home by a severe spell of sickness.

Jno. B. Reynolds, the lightning drug tourist, never passes by his old home without brightening our streets with his genial physiognomy. He replenished the stock of our druggists this week.

Mr. W. S. Paris, the advance agent of the "Real Uncle Tom's Cabin Company," was in town this week. His company play at Elder's Opera-house Monday night, the 7th proximo.

Mr. H. N. Leach, a promising young lawyer, of the Clarksville bar, was in the city last week—Hopkinsville South Kentuckian.

You forgot to mention what court he was practicing in over there. Was it at Cupid's session?

Mr. W. H. Jones, of Robertson county, came down last Wednesday to attend our tobacco sales. Mr. Jones is a prominent planter, and a good tobacco man, and proposes to attend our market regularly.

Mr. Frank Phillips is now out of the book representing the Chronicle Road Bindery and also soliciting for Judge Miliken's new digest. He is in West Tennessee, and is meeting with much success.

Piano treasures, a bound volume of music, containing nineteen beautiful solos for the piano, by such authors as Jungmann, Lange, Strauss, Dorn and Gounod. Price $1.00. For sale at book and music store.

We are glad to learn that Mr. A. V. Goodpasture, of the bar, is coming out to our end of the metropolis to reside. He is going to build a fine residence on the vacant lot on Franklin street just beyond Mr. D. S. Hendrick's place.

Mr. E. L. Belcher, a well-known lawyer, of Memphis, Tenn., was in the city last Thursday on legal business. Mr. Belcher refueled here from the fever in the summer of 1879, and is an honorary member of the Chickasaws.

Mr. T. A. Bunnell was in town this week, and reports his brother, Jas. C. Bunnell, whom we reported dangerously sick with typhoid pneumonia last week, much improved. It gives us pleasure to hear this.

Since the departure of the Clarksville belles for home, society is lulling into its normal state, and some of the beaux here are said to be sadder if not wiser men.—Cor. Nashville Herald.

We regret to note the departure of Mr. John Marable for Dallas, Texas, where he expects to permanently locate. Mr. Marable was one of the best and most popular farmers of the Southside, and our friends across the stream will miss him.

Riley, old boy, aren't you ashamed of yourself, say, right at the head of your "dancing feetles." "This is Markey Day." "Oh, Dickey! Dickey! Dickey!" to think that a boy of your color and experience would do such a thing! Why didn't you say Fid Tuesday day?

Ex-Representative Richard Ledbetter, of the "State of Stewart," made us a pleasant call this week. He had been to the Capital to sell some corn and saw what the Legislature propose to do with the state debt. We won't say that the legislative bee has begun to buzz in friend Ledbetter's hat.

Mr. Charles D. Ringgold, an old Clarksville boy, came down from Louisville last Sunday morning, where he holds a prominent position in a large dry goods house, and spent several pleasant days in the city. Charles is as popular as he is handsome, and we must see him here "numerously."

Mr. D. Kinannon, of the wide-awake and enterprising firm of Kinannon, Wood & Co., went East last Monday to purchase new goods. This firm propose to make a special feature, in the future, of fine French china, in addition to their already full line of hardware, queensware, tinware, etc. It will pay any one to visit their establishment before purchasing elsewhere.

Amusements.

Miss Julia A. Hunt and company appeared at Elder's Opera-house on Thursday night in "Violet," and on last night in "Romeo and Juliet," to fair audiences. The severe weather prevented a full attendance. Miss Hunt is a talented actress and is well supported. She is a great favorite with our people, and deserves all the encouragement and success she has attained. This afternoon at the matinee she will give, by special request, her favorite piece, "The Pearl of Savoy." At night she presents "Lemonade." Turn out and give her a rousing house.

The "Real Uncle Tom's Cabin Company" are booked for Monday night, at the Opera House. This troupe are said to give the only true rendition of the dramatization of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous novel of that name. See their advertisement elsewhere.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.

APPOINTMENTS.
Readers—Mr. J. J. West, Dr. D. F. Wright, Alternates: Prof. Emory, Mr. C. Stacker, Ladies—Misses L. Meriwether, L. Beaumont, A. Alternates: Florence Keese, Meta Viser.

Recitations—Miss Bertie Rhodes and Miss Mary Caldwell.
Essays—Miss Maerue, Miss Maill and Mr. Rudolph.
Historic word Pope.
Author for discussion, Richard Crenshaw.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.

Messrs. Merce McKay and Ben Blackman returned Wednesday evening from Memphis. Ben says that Mr. Gray was the "biggest thing on wheels" that he has ever seen or heard of, and that Sally Burnham's five thousand dollar Bechemot saucer would look like a seventy-five-cent summer overcoat in comparison with the Golden Fleece of the Argonauts.

Gen. Wm. A. Quarles, of our bar, was employed by Capt. C. D. Bell to go over to Hopkinsville and defend his son, John P. Bell, at his preliminary trial, for the shooting of the negro Alex. Pool. Young Bell was bailed to answer to the next term of the Criminal court.

Capt. Bell has placed his son's interest in competent hands. There is no a better lawyer anywhere than Gen. W. A. Quarles.

Dr. W. W. Ellis, of Gun-town, Miss., shot (no extra charge for it) a rabbit, unless parties want it explained, through our city last week on his return home from the Louisville Medical College, where he has been christened an M. D. Tho' he can heal others, he could not cure himself, and just dropped in to get a prescription for a cardiac trouble of which he is suffering. We wonder if he found the fair antidote?

The Southern Magazine.
EDITORS CHRONICLE—You will confer a personal favor by the publication of the accompanying, which I received to-day in a letter from Rev. F. W. E. Peesman, managing editor of the late Southern Magazine. I have followed the example of Mr. Brandon. Should other subscribers be willing to release the publishers, they will please notify me by postal or otherwise at an early date.

MS. SUP. F. MOONEY.
"In consideration of the suspension of the late Southern Magazine, entailing upon its proprietors and managers not only a loss of time, much anxiety and trouble, but also loss of money and the bearing of the brunt and burden of a failure, I hereby release them from my claims for subscription to said magazine."

Being conversant with the affairs connected with the issuance of the Southern Monthly Magazine, and knowing Dr. Peesman and Breese to be gentlemen who, I do not believe would under any circumstances misrepresent the matter, I endorse the above and cheerfully release all my claims.

W. O. BRANDON.
A New Manufacturing Enterprise.
There is no more thriving and enterprising firm in Clarksville than that of McReynolds, Donnelly & Co., carpenters, builders, etc., whose planing mills and shops are located on Commerce street, between Fourth and Fifth cross streets. They have done a prosperous business here for years, and now we are glad to state to the public that they have just added a new feature to their already extensive business—that of furniture manufacturing. They commenced the manufacture of furniture only a few weeks ago, and have not yet received all the necessary machinery for this department, but they have already on hand a pretty full stock of bedsteads, and other cheap lines of household furniture.

We are glad to see these gentlemen show a progressive and enterprising spirit in their business, and feel confident that they will meet with liberal patronage and encouragement from our people.

A very delightful little informal party was given last Monday night at the residence of Judge Jo. W. Seales, out at the east end of Madison avenue. There were about a dozen couples present, and the universal verdict was "a real pleasant evening." There was a string band on hand, and dancing, interspersed with happy tele-a-tele, made the hours glide by with noiseless tread. There are no more agreeable and pleasant entertainers in our charming society than Judge and Mrs. Seales, assisted by their young lady relatives, Misses Barker and Robertson.

It is said that the members of our legislature who went on to see the ground republican new-vow at Washington, on the 4th of March, "expressed no little fear at having to travel through Ohio. They were afraid the 'Ohio fever' might strike them, and they should be appointed to some lucrative office by the newly installed president. Oh! how sadly would their dear constituents miss them.

White Burley Again.
EDITOR CHRONICLE—Please ask Mr. Ingram what he will give me for a crop of White Burley raised in the Clarksville tobacco region? Get him to tell you what Messrs. Riggin, Ewing and Dawson sold their crops at, as he seems posted on this variety. Can you tell me who keeps White Burley seed for sale?
PLANTER.
West Fork, Ky., March 1.

We refer our friend "Planter," to the "Burley organ" across the street.

Amusements.

Miss Julia A. Hunt and company appeared at Elder's Opera-house on Thursday night in "Violet," and on last night in "Romeo and Juliet," to fair audiences. The severe weather prevented a full attendance. Miss Hunt is a talented actress and is well supported. She is a great favorite with our people, and deserves all the encouragement and success she has attained. This afternoon at the matinee she will give, by special request, her favorite piece, "The Pearl of Savoy." At night she presents "Lemonade." Turn out and give her a rousing house.

The "Real Uncle Tom's Cabin Company" are booked for Monday night, at the Opera House. This troupe are said to give the only true rendition of the dramatization of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous novel of that name. See their advertisement elsewhere.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.

APPOINTMENTS.
Readers—Mr. J. J. West, Dr. D. F. Wright, Alternates: Prof. Emory, Mr. C. Stacker, Ladies—Misses L. Meriwether, L. Beaumont, A. Alternates: Florence Keese, Meta Viser.

Recitations—Miss Bertie Rhodes and Miss Mary Caldwell.
Essays—Miss Maerue, Miss Maill and Mr. Rudolph.
Historic word Pope.
Author for discussion, Richard Crenshaw.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.

Messrs. Merce McKay and Ben Blackman returned Wednesday evening from Memphis. Ben says that Mr. Gray was the "biggest thing on wheels" that he has ever seen or heard of, and that Sally Burnham's five thousand dollar Bechemot saucer would look like a seventy-five-cent summer overcoat in comparison with the Golden Fleece of the Argonauts.

Gen. Wm. A. Quarles, of our bar, was employed by Capt. C. D. Bell to go over to Hopkinsville and defend his son, John P. Bell, at his preliminary trial, for the shooting of the negro Alex. Pool. Young Bell was bailed to answer to the next term of the Criminal court.

Capt. Bell has placed his son's interest in competent hands. There is no a better lawyer anywhere than Gen. W. A. Quarles.

Dr. W. W. Ellis, of Gun-town, Miss., shot (no extra charge for it) a rabbit, unless parties want it explained, through our city last week on his return home from the Louisville Medical College, where he has been christened an M. D. Tho' he can heal others, he could not cure himself, and just dropped in to get a prescription for a cardiac trouble of which he is suffering. We wonder if he found the fair antidote?

The Southern Magazine.
EDITORS CHRONICLE—You will confer a personal favor by the publication of the accompanying, which I received to-day in a letter from Rev. F. W. E. Peesman, managing editor of the late Southern Magazine. I have followed the example of Mr. Brandon. Should other subscribers be willing to release the publishers, they will please notify me by postal or otherwise at an early date.

MS. SUP. F. MOONEY.
"In consideration of the suspension of the late Southern Magazine, entailing upon its proprietors and managers not only a loss of time, much anxiety and trouble, but also loss of money and the bearing of the brunt and burden of a failure, I hereby release them from my claims for subscription to said magazine."

Being conversant with the affairs connected with the issuance of the Southern Monthly Magazine, and knowing Dr. Peesman and Breese to be gentlemen who, I do not believe would under any circumstances misrepresent the matter, I endorse the above and cheerfully release all my claims.

W. O. BRANDON.
A New Manufacturing Enterprise.
There is no more thriving and enterprising firm in Clarksville than that of McReynolds, Donnelly & Co., carpenters, builders, etc., whose planing mills and shops are located on Commerce street, between Fourth and Fifth cross streets. They have done a prosperous business here for years, and now we are glad to state to the public that they have just added a new feature to their already extensive business—that of furniture manufacturing. They commenced the manufacture of furniture only a few weeks ago, and have not yet received all the necessary machinery for this department, but they have already on hand a pretty full stock of bedsteads, and other cheap lines of household furniture.

We are glad to see these gentlemen show a progressive and enterprising spirit in their business, and feel confident that they will meet with liberal patronage and encouragement from our people.

A very delightful little informal party was given last Monday night at the residence of Judge Jo. W. Seales, out at the east end of Madison avenue. There were about a dozen couples present, and the universal verdict was "a real pleasant evening." There was a string band on hand, and dancing, interspersed with happy tele-a-tele, made the hours glide by with noiseless tread. There are no more agreeable and pleasant entertainers in our charming society than Judge and Mrs. Seales, assisted by their young lady relatives, Misses Barker and Robertson.

It is said that the members of our legislature who went on to see the ground republican new-vow at Washington, on the 4th of March, "expressed no little fear at having to travel through Ohio. They were afraid the 'Ohio fever' might strike them, and they should be appointed to some lucrative office by the newly installed president. Oh! how sadly would their dear constituents miss them.

White Burley Again.
EDITOR CHRONICLE—Please ask Mr. Ingram what he will give me for a crop of White Burley raised in the Clarksville tobacco region? Get him to tell you what Messrs. Riggin, Ewing and Dawson sold their crops at, as he seems posted on this variety. Can you tell me who keeps White Burley seed for sale?
PLANTER.
West Fork, Ky., March 1.

We refer our friend "Planter," to the "Burley organ" across the street.

Amusements.

Miss Julia A. Hunt and company appeared at Elder's Opera-house on Thursday night in "Violet," and on last night in "Romeo and Juliet," to fair audiences. The severe weather prevented a full attendance. Miss Hunt is a talented actress and is well supported. She is a great favorite with our people, and deserves all the encouragement and success she has attained. This afternoon at the matinee she will give, by special request, her favorite piece, "The Pearl of Savoy." At night she presents "Lemonade." Turn out and give her a rousing house.

The "Real Uncle Tom's Cabin Company" are booked for Monday night, at the Opera House. This troupe are said to give the only true rendition of the dramatization of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous novel of that name. See their advertisement elsewhere.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.

APPOINTMENTS.
Readers—Mr. J. J. West, Dr. D. F. Wright, Alternates: Prof. Emory, Mr. C. Stacker, Ladies—Misses L. Meriwether, L. Beaumont, A. Alternates: Florence Keese, Meta Viser.

Recitations—Miss Bertie Rhodes and Miss Mary Caldwell.
Essays—Miss Maerue, Miss Maill and Mr. Rudolph.
Historic word Pope.
Author for discussion, Richard Crenshaw.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.

Messrs. Merce McKay and Ben Blackman returned Wednesday evening from Memphis. Ben says that Mr. Gray was the "biggest thing on wheels" that he has ever seen or heard of, and that Sally Burnham's five thousand dollar Bechemot saucer would look like a seventy-five-cent summer overcoat in comparison with the Golden Fleece of the Argonauts.

Gen. Wm. A. Quarles, of our bar, was employed by Capt. C. D. Bell to go over to Hopkinsville and defend his son, John P. Bell, at his preliminary trial, for the shooting of the negro Alex. Pool. Young Bell was bailed to answer to the next term of the Criminal court.

Capt. Bell has placed his son's interest in competent hands. There is no a better lawyer anywhere than Gen. W. A. Quarles.

Dr. W. W. Ellis, of Gun-town, Miss., shot (no extra charge for it) a rabbit, unless parties want it explained, through our city last week on his return home from the Louisville Medical College, where he has been christened an M. D. Tho' he can heal others, he could not cure himself, and just dropped in to get a prescription for a cardiac trouble of which he is suffering. We wonder if he found the fair antidote?

The Southern Magazine.
EDITORS CHRONICLE—You will confer a personal favor by the publication of the accompanying, which I received to-day in a letter from Rev. F. W. E. Peesman, managing editor of the late Southern Magazine. I have followed the example of Mr. Brandon. Should other subscribers be willing to release the publishers, they will please notify me by postal or otherwise at an early date.

MS. SUP. F. MOONEY.
"In consideration of the suspension of the late Southern Magazine, entailing upon its proprietors and managers not only a loss of time, much anxiety and trouble, but also loss of money and the bearing of the brunt and burden of a failure, I hereby release them from my claims for subscription to said magazine."

Being conversant with the affairs connected with the issuance of the Southern Monthly Magazine, and knowing Dr. Peesman and Breese to be gentlemen who, I do not believe would under any circumstances misrepresent the matter, I endorse the above and cheerfully release all my claims.

W. O. BRANDON.
A New Manufacturing Enterprise.
There is no more thriving and enterprising firm in Clarksville than that of McReynolds, Donnelly & Co., carpenters, builders, etc., whose planing mills and shops are located on Commerce street, between Fourth and Fifth cross streets. They have done a prosperous business here for years, and now we are glad to state to the public that they have just added a new feature to their already extensive business—that of furniture manufacturing. They commenced the manufacture of furniture only a few weeks ago, and have not yet received all the necessary machinery for this department, but they have already on hand a pretty full stock of bedsteads, and other cheap lines of household furniture.

We are glad to see these gentlemen show a progressive and enterprising spirit in their business, and feel confident that they will meet with liberal patronage and encouragement from our people.

A very delightful little informal party was given last Monday night at the residence of Judge Jo. W. Seales, out at the east end of Madison avenue. There were about a dozen couples present, and the universal verdict was "a real pleasant evening." There was a string band on hand, and dancing, interspersed with happy tele-a-tele, made the hours glide by with noiseless tread. There are no more agreeable and pleasant entertainers in our charming society than Judge and Mrs. Seales, assisted by their young lady relatives, Misses Barker and Robertson.

It is said that the members of our legislature who went on to see the ground republican new-vow at Washington, on the 4th of March, "expressed no little fear at having to travel through Ohio. They were afraid the 'Ohio fever' might strike them, and they should be appointed to some lucrative office by the newly installed president. Oh! how sadly would their dear constituents miss them.

White Burley Again.
EDITOR CHRONICLE—Please ask Mr. Ingram what he will give me for a crop of White Burley raised in the Clarksville tobacco region? Get him to tell you what Messrs. Riggin, Ewing and Dawson sold their crops at, as he seems posted on this variety. Can you tell me who keeps White Burley seed for sale?
PLANTER.
West Fork, Ky., March 1.

We refer our friend "Planter," to the "Burley organ" across the street.

Amusements.

Miss Julia A. Hunt and company appeared at Elder's Opera-house on Thursday night in "Violet," and on last night in "Romeo and Juliet," to fair audiences. The severe weather prevented a full attendance. Miss Hunt is a talented actress and is well supported. She is a great favorite with our people, and deserves all the encouragement and success she has attained. This afternoon at the matinee she will give, by special request, her favorite piece, "The Pearl of Savoy." At night she presents "Lemonade." Turn out and give her a rousing house.

The "Real Uncle Tom's Cabin Company" are booked for Monday night, at the Opera House. This troupe are said to give the only true rendition of the dramatization of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous novel of that name. See their advertisement elsewhere.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.

APPOINTMENTS.
Readers—Mr. J. J. West, Dr. D. F. Wright, Alternates: Prof. Emory, Mr. C. Stacker, Ladies—Misses L. Meriwether, L. Beaumont, A. Alternates: Florence Keese, Meta Viser.

Recitations—Miss Bertie Rhodes and Miss Mary Caldwell.
Essays—Miss Maerue, Miss Maill and Mr. Rudolph.
Historic word Pope.
Author for discussion, Richard Crenshaw.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.

Messrs. Merce McKay and Ben Blackman returned Wednesday evening from Memphis. Ben says that Mr. Gray was the "biggest thing on wheels" that he has ever seen or heard of, and that Sally Burnham's five thousand dollar Bechemot saucer would look like a seventy-five-cent summer overcoat in comparison with the Golden Fleece of the Argonauts.

Gen. Wm. A. Quarles, of our bar, was employed by Capt. C. D. Bell to go over to Hopkinsville and defend his son, John P. Bell, at his preliminary trial, for the shooting of the negro Alex. Pool. Young Bell was bailed to answer to the next term of the Criminal court.

Capt. Bell has placed his son's interest in competent hands. There is no a better lawyer anywhere than Gen. W. A. Quarles.

Dr. W. W. Ellis, of Gun-town, Miss., shot (no extra charge for it) a rabbit, unless parties want it explained, through our city last week on his return home from the Louisville Medical College, where he has been christened an M. D. Tho' he can heal others, he could not cure himself, and just dropped in to get a prescription for a cardiac trouble of which he is suffering. We wonder if he found the fair antidote?

The Southern Magazine.
EDITORS CHRONICLE—You will confer a personal favor by the publication of the accompanying, which I received to-day in a letter from Rev. F. W. E. Peesman, managing editor of the late Southern Magazine. I have followed the example of Mr. Brandon. Should other subscribers be willing to release the publishers, they will please notify me by postal or otherwise at an early date.

MS. SUP. F. MOONEY.
"In consideration of the suspension of the late Southern Magazine, entailing upon its proprietors and managers not only a loss of time, much anxiety and trouble, but also loss of money and the bearing of the brunt and burden of a failure, I hereby release them from my claims for subscription to said magazine."

Being conversant with the affairs connected with the issuance of the Southern Monthly Magazine, and knowing Dr. Peesman and Breese to be gentlemen who, I do not believe would under any circumstances misrepresent the matter, I endorse the above and cheerfully release all my claims.

W. O. BRANDON.
A New Manufacturing Enterprise.
There is no more thriving and enterprising firm in Clarksville than that of McReynolds, Donnelly & Co., carpenters, builders, etc., whose planing mills and shops are located on Commerce street, between Fourth and Fifth cross streets. They have done a prosperous business here for years, and now we are glad to state to the public that they have just added a new feature to their already extensive business—that of furniture manufacturing. They commenced the manufacture of furniture only a few weeks ago, and have not yet received all the necessary machinery for this department, but they have already on hand a pretty full stock of bedsteads, and other cheap lines of household furniture.

We are glad to see these gentlemen show a progressive and enterprising spirit in their business, and feel confident that they will meet with liberal patronage and encouragement from our people.

A very delightful little informal party was given last Monday night at the residence of Judge Jo. W. Seales, out at the east end of Madison avenue. There were about a dozen couples present, and the universal verdict was "a real pleasant evening." There was a string band on hand, and dancing, interspersed with happy tele-a-tele, made the hours glide by with noiseless tread. There are no more agreeable and pleasant entertainers in our charming society than Judge and Mrs. Seales, assisted by their young lady relatives, Misses Barker and Robertson.

It is said that the members of our legislature who went on to see the ground republican new-vow at Washington, on the 4th of March, "expressed no little fear at having to travel through Ohio. They were afraid the 'Ohio fever' might strike them, and they should be appointed to some lucrative office by the newly installed president. Oh! how sadly would their dear constituents miss them.

White Burley Again.
EDITOR CHRONICLE—Please ask Mr. Ingram what he will give me for a crop of White Burley raised in the Clarksville tobacco region? Get him to tell you what Messrs. Riggin, Ewing and Dawson sold their crops at, as he seems posted on this variety. Can you tell me who keeps White Burley seed for sale?
PLANTER.
West Fork, Ky., March 1.

We refer our friend "Planter," to the "Burley organ" across the street.

Amusements.

Miss Julia A. Hunt and company appeared at Elder's Opera-house on Thursday night in "Violet," and on last night in "Romeo and Juliet," to fair audiences. The severe weather prevented a full attendance. Miss Hunt is a talented actress and is well supported. She is a great favorite with our people, and deserves all the encouragement and success she has attained. This afternoon at the matinee she will give, by special request, her favorite piece, "The Pearl of Savoy." At night she presents "Lemonade." Turn out and give her a rousing house.

The "Real Uncle Tom's Cabin Company" are booked for Monday night, at the Opera House. This troupe are said to give the only true rendition of the dramatization of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous novel of that name. See their advertisement elsewhere.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.

APPOINTMENTS.
Readers—Mr. J. J. West, Dr. D. F. Wright, Alternates: Prof. Emory, Mr. C. Stacker, Ladies—Misses L. Meriwether, L. Beaumont, A. Alternates: Florence Keese, Meta Viser.

Recitations—Miss Bertie Rhodes and Miss Mary Caldwell.
Essays—Miss Maerue, Miss Maill and Mr. Rudolph.
Historic word Pope.
Author for discussion, Richard Crenshaw.

THE Clarksville Reading Club will meet at the residence of Mr. A. Howell, on Madison street, the third Tuesday night in March.